FURNITURE FACTORY WOULD LIKE TO LOCATE PLANT HERE

MATTER PUT UP TO LOCAL BOARD OF TRADE THROUGH VICE PRESIDENT OF FLORIDA EAST COAST RAILROAD.

That New Smyrna has an opportunity to secure a woodworking and furniture plant if the people will get behind the matter and offer the proper inducements for the plant to come here, is shown by a tip coming from Vice President J. E. Ingraham of the Florida East Coast railroad, who has referred the matter to the New Smyrna board of trade for investigation and action.

The proposition comes from a prominent contracting engineer in Philadelphia, who has been commissioned by a large furniture manufacturing concern in Philadelphia to find a suitable location for a new plant at some point on the seacoast and in the south.

Inquiry was made by the contracting engineer from the Manufacturers' Record, published at Baltimore, for suitable locations, and through the Record was referred to Vice President Ingraham of the Flagler system. Mr. Ingraham has sent a copy of the correspondence of the local board of trade with the request that the matter of a suitable location at New Smyrna be taken up and what inducements for locating here can be offered be made direct to the Philadelphia engineer.

The manufacturing concern desires, if possible, to find a location where a suitable building can be obtained and prefers a building already equipped with some kind of woodworking machinery. The plan is to establish a factory in the south to supplement their big plant in Philadelphia, making a large part of the furniture from hard wood in this vicinity.

FLAGLER SYSTEM BUYS MUCH LAND FOR YARDS AND SHOPS IN MIAMI

Miami Metropolis: That the railroad company means business in the Buena Vista section is believed to be indicated in a substantial way by the 21 deeds filed by the county recorder on Saturday representing payment in cash of $114,252.

Big items in the purchases as placed on record are those from Gleason Bros., amounting to $47,000, from Elizabeth Newton amounting to $16,500, and from T. V. Moore amounting to $12,000. Forty-eight lots were bought up from 13 different holders in the Montgomery subdivision at Buena Vista, about $800 each being paid for them. A total amount of $39,515 was paid for the lots in this subdivision, according to the consideration marked on the deeds.

The deeds are all made out to Frederick S. Morse, the realty agent for the Florida East Coast railway company here.

The recent announcement by Morton Riddle, general manager of the road to the effect that the main yards of the company are to be located on this property at Buena Vista has put an end to the speculation concerning the disposition of the lands by the railway company.

It is understood that these deeds filed last week represent only a portion of the lands purchased by the Florida East Coast railway company for the purposes of its yards and shops. The railway company, it is stated, has obtained control of practically all of that land lying between Avenue D and the railroad track and between Johnson street and Buena Vista.

It is the plan of the railway company to begin work upon the shops and yards within the present year, and to complete them within the next three or four years. The plans of the railway company, as recently announced, have given property in that section a considerable impetus. It is expected that the large number of men to be employed at the yards will create a strong demand for building lots within easy walking distance.

G. W. Watkins, who formerly lived here and now has a farm in the Everglades section, was in town the first of the week calling on old friends. He is going on to his old home in Murray, Kentucky, to spend the summer and will return early in the fall.

SPECIAL TRAIN BRINGS MANY FROM SANFORD TO THE BEACH

PUPILS OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS IN NEIGHBORING CITY GRASP OPPORTUNITY TO SPEND DAY ON COAST.

About 600 strong the members of the various Sunday schools of Sanford and their friends invaded New Smyrna and Coronado yesterday, coming in a special train of eight cars, and made the most of the opportunity offered for a day at the beach and in this city, enjoying the boating, fishing and surf bathing.

The visitors were brought to Orange City Junction on a special train over the Atlantic Coast Line. At the junction the coaches were transferred to the Flagler system tracks and brought to New Smyrna, arriving here about 9:30 o'clock in the morning.

The opportunity for a day at the beach offered the biggest inducement to the visitors and the majority of them made haste to get to the Atlantic as soon as possible after leaving the railroad cars. A plunge into the surf and a battle with the breakers called many immediately after their arrival at the beach and everything possible to accommodate the visitors and make it pleasant for them had been done in advance.

Picnic parties and fishing parties were formed and the beach presented a lively scene from mid-forenoon to mid-afternoon, when the visitors began to wend their ways back to the depot to be ready for the start for home.

This was the first excursion from the interior of the season and its success is expected to insure a number of other special trains from Sanford, Orlando and other interior towns during the summer season.

REV. AND MRS. WELLS INJURED IN RUNAWAY

When the horse they were driving became frightened at a road scraper and ran away, Rev. and Mrs. J. Q. Wells were thrown from the buggy and both were badly shaken up and bruised. Mrs. Wells was so badly hurt she was confined to her bed for several days, but Rev. Mr. Wells escaped with no more serious injuries than a badly sprained arm and sprained leg. The buggy was badly damaged.

Rev. and Mrs. Wells were on their way from Hawks Park to New Smyrna when the horse became frightened and started to run. One wheel of the buggy struck a small palmetto tree near the road, throwing both occupants out. Mrs. Wells was taken to a house nearby and cared for until she could be removed to their home at Hawks Park.

Mrs. J. H. Hubbard and daughter Fearn left Wednesday morning for Jacksonville, where Fearn will undergo medical treatment at one of the hospitals there.

SKETCH OF JOE SEARS, WHO MADE A PHENOMINAL RACE

W. J. ("Joe") Sears was born in Smithville, Georgia, December 14, 1874, and shortly afterward moved to Ellaville, Ga., and from there to Kissimmee, Fla., in January, 1881, when only a little more than six years old, where he has resided ever since. Joe received his early education in the public schools of Osceola county, and in 1891 entered the Florida State College at Lake City, where he graduated, receiving the degree of A. B. in 1895, at which time he was senior captain, corps of cadets. He entered Mercer university in Macon, Ga., where in 1896 he received the degree of B. L., and on the 30th day of May, 1911, the A. B. degree was conferred on him by the University of Florida, at Gainesville. In 1896 he was admitted to practice law in Georgia and in 1897 admitted to practice before the Florida courts. In 1900 he was admitted to the supreme court of Florida and in 1912 to the supreme court of the United States and United States district court, southern district of Florida. For several years he was a member of the county democratic executive committee. In 1899 he was elected mayor of Kissimmee, and his first official communication advocated the municipal ownership of water, light and sewer systems, and

BOTH BELL AND WHISTLE MAY BE USED AS FIRE WARNING

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF DEPARTMENT TAKES UP MATTER OF INSTALLING WARNING OF BLAZE IN CITY.

That the city of New Smyrna shall be provided with an adequate fire alarm for the purpose of warning the citizens of the breaking out of a fire and calling the members of the volunteer department to the prompt handling of the fire apparatus, is the purpose of the board of trustees of the local department and there are several plans for such an alarm being considered by the board of trustees.

One of these plans is for the placing of a large bell at some central point in the down town district, the bell to be rung from the central telephone office, and another is for the placing of a siren whistle at the electric light plant, the alarm to be sent to the plant by telephone. It is possible that both alarms will be installed and that both will be used in case of a fire, if the blaze comes at a time when steam is up at the electric plant to blow the whistle.

The plan is to have the city divided into fire districts, with a system of alarms to designate the district in which the fire is located, so many taps on the bell or so many blasts of the whistle to denote the certain section of the city from which the alarm is sent.

Under this arrangement all that will be necessary will be for the first person who discovers the fire to telephone the location to the telephone operator at central. With a chart of the city in front of her, central immediately knows what alarm to ring and the designated alarm is immediately given. Two taps, or four taps, or six taps, as the case may be, on the bell immediately notifies every citizen and every member of the fire department in what section of the city the blaze is started and all people can be governed accordingly.

The ringing apparatus is a clock-like arrangement enclosed within the bell and the touching of a button, the turning of a switch or the plugging in of a connection immediately starts the mechanism to working and the alarm is given.

Another meeting of the board of trustees of the department will be held tonight and the matter of an adequate fire alarm will be further discussed at that time.

MR. AND MRS. GOWDY OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On last Monday at their home, "Edgewood Grove," overlooking the broad Indian river, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gowdy celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. The friends that gathered during the afternoon and evening from near and far to express to the happy couple their good wishes and congratulations were many. The gifts and tokens of love and esteem presented to these good people at their half century milestones of wedded life were numerous and beautiful. Delightful refreshments were served to all callers and after a pleasant hour with their host and hostess they departed, expressing wishes for many more years of life, health, happiness and usefulness.

It is but a few years since Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy came from New Haven, Conn., and located in our midst and in this time they have proven to all who know them to be the best of friends and the most estimable neighbors. If Connecticut has more such people looking for a southern home, may they find New Smyrna.

Fifty years. How easily said, Fifty years since you were wed; Fifty years you've trod together Life's pathway in all kinds of weather.

Fifty years as husband—wife You have been each other's life; Fifty more I wish you, then— Well—as many more again.

MALADIA MALARIA

Familiarity breeds indifference.

Even the constant presence of danger loses its terrors for us when we can't escape it or when we become convinced that the process required to rid ourselves of it is more complicated than the danger itself.

This has wide application in Florida to a considerable list of diseases that are actually preventable, or at least possible of restriction far beyond their present prevalence. Malaria is one of these. The disease is usually considered a necessary accompaniment of new and undeveloped countries, and the popular fancy, even in these modern and enlightened times, accepts the fable that it comes from the mists and miasmas arising from wet places.

The only basis for truth in such imaginings is that such conditions favor the breeding of the anopheles mosquito, by which the germs are carried from the malaria-infected individual to other individuals who up to that time are free from the infection. Even in such surroundings the disease would be impossible unless it were brought from other localities by persons who were actually suffering from it.

This suggests the idea that it is possible that any given section or territory may be freed from this infection, and that it is possible has been proven over large areas in different parts of the world. Indeed, the Southern Medical association, through a commission of able physicians, is now working out the details of a comprehensive campaign by which the southern states are to be emancipated from malaria. It is indeed possible, but the most important, because most difficult, element in this campaign will be the co-operation of the people, of the victims themselves, who are the actual sufferers.

Every person who has this disease is the center of infection and danger to those about him, within a large radius. The germs of malaria in the blood of the patient are absorbed by the mosquito in its bite, and passing through certain stages of development in the mosquito, these germs are transmitted to new victims by the same mosquito, and the process is repeated indefinitely and with increasing vigor from the beginning of the warm season to its close.

During the winter and when the temperatures generally fall below 60 degrees Fahrenheit, the anopheles mosquito cannot carry the infection, but the germs of the disease are perpetuated in a more or less dormant condition in the blood of the human host, or patient.

There is thus a cycle of development by which the mosquito infects man and man infects the mosquito, and if at any stage this circle of growth is broken the spread of the disease is stopped in this particular direction.

Theoretically there are two ways of breaking in upon this cycle: First, by the destruction of the mosquito, the sole agent of carrying the disease, or its germs, from one human host to another. While it is possible to prevent the breeding of the mosquito locally, destroying the breeding places by filling up or draining wet spots or by the use of kerosene on the surfaces of stagnant waters; yet it is evident that the destruction of the entire mosquito crop by any known means is a practical impossibility.

The second measure of prevention is by the protection of the human being from the bite of the mosquito, whether it be infected or not. The anopheles is dormant or idle during daylight hours. It gets busy in the early evening and holds high carnival throughout the night. It is during these hours that Floridians in particular should be watchful against this pest.

It used to be considered that the bite of the mosquito was nothing more than annoying. Medical science has shown that it is dangerous, that is, the attack of certain of the many varieties of these insects, not of all, although it may some time be discovered that each variety has a menace all its own. And so it is best and safest to take no chances with any of them.

No mosquito can penetrate a substantial wire screen properly put up. Therefore, surround your porches with screens. See that they are put and kept in place and in good order. Screen the doors and windows of your home, of your living rooms, dining rooms, kitchens and bathrooms. Screen the windows of the bedrooms and over the beds have nets and tuck them in carefully before you retire.

The screen is as necessary a part of the Florida home as its roof. This statement may be questioned, but stop and think about it before you deny it. A roofless house would be no more a menace to health during the larger part of the year in Florida than a house without screens.

These facts regarding malaria are not fresh revelations to intelligent Floridians or to those who have resided here, but even Floridians become careless and indifferent and need reminders of the dangers that threaten them. And malaria is one of these dangers, but one that may be removed and avoided.—State Board of Health.

News from Fair Florida Briefly Told

Society circuses have been a summer attraction at Jacksonville and St. Petersburg.

Melbourne defeated Ft. Pierce last week 5 to 3.

The council at Miami has provided $30,000 for fire department additions and improvements, and a city hospital.

The effort to honor the Indian chief, Osceola, with a monument, is, we think, decidedly silly. What good will a monument do him or his people? Better to make some reparation for the wrong done him and then by doing something for them that would be decidedly beneficial. We do not pretend to know what that should be but those who know them and their circumstances ought to know something that would be of practical utility to them.—Estero Eagle.

Chas. W. Post, the man who coined "There's a reason," is dead. He started with $1,000 and invested 25 per cent. of his net earnings in advertising and became a multi-millionaire in 10 years. The more money he made the more he advertised. On the 25 per cent. principle his advertising appropriation for 1914 was $1,000,000. "There's a reason."—New York Packer.

Ft. McCoy defeated Reddick 9 to 6.

The other day the authorities at St. Petersburg found the body of a man in the reservoir. A little later they found a bunch of bullet-holes in the body. Then they found that his throat had been cut across—and then they began to believe the poor man was dead. Some discernment there.—Palm Beach Post.

The entire business district of Capitola, a splendid little town in the eastern section of the country, at the junction of the Seaboard and Florida Central railroad, was destroyed by fire at noon Monday.—Tallahassee True Democrat.

Daytona is to have a big Fourth of July celebration, and a mardi gras later in the month.

After St. Augustine had a destructive fire no time was lost in purchasing an automobile fire apparatus. Will Orlando require such an argument to force the purchase of an auto truck?—Orlando Sentinel.

The St. Augustine council ordered the motor truck long before the big fire. But when you want to see a regular fire department—visit the "Prettiest Winter Resort in the World."

The latest turn in the Ohio Republican senatorial situation is the avowed candidacy of former Lieut.-Gov. Warren G. Harding of Marion. Opponents of former Senator J. B. Foraker are back of the Harding movement, but it is stated that the contest between Foraker and Harding is to be a friendly one. This, of course, is not to be taken seriously, for who ever knew of Mr. Foraker participating in a contest that was not featured with all the fighting fixtures—Bowling Green (O.) Democrat.

Mr. Harding spends his winters on Magnolia avenue, Daytona.

When the street railway in Miami is ready for operation some time in the future it is probable that the storage battery type of cars in use in Daytona will be placed in commission.

The Melbourne Times is doing its level best to get some improvements made in the bad stretch of road between Eau Gallie and Melbourne—that same stretch of road which the Metropolis has frequently reported complaints of. "From Atlanta to Miami," says a writer in the Melbourne paper, "there is not a piece of road one tenth as rotten and mean." The Metropolis is glad to see the papers of Brevard county take the matter in hand.—Miami Metropolis.

Tampa is the biggest white city in the state of Florida. Jacksonville has to count the negroes to beat us.—Tampa Times.

Billy Sunday says that the greatest work in the world is saving souls. Billy ought to try his hand in Apalachicola.—Apalachicola Times. Billy had better look out for No. 1.

Arcadia defeated Bowling Green 14 to 0.

Orlando has made a start on a white way. That is the only proper mode of lighting the business section of any city.

The St. Petersburg Independent believes that an anti-tipping bill cannot be accomplished for Florida. Hope the hotel proprietors in the Sunshine City don't feel the same way.—Miami Metropolis.

Despite the adverse criticism leveled at the new Bryan primary law we believe it will stick.—Sanford Herald.

The plurality primary is again in vogue, second choice voting being not much in evidence in the "late" primary. At least two nominees got their nomination by only a plurality vote in Alachua county.—Gainesville Daily Sun.

California's big orange crop kept the prices of Floridians down during April and May. The quality was fine, too. California is going to keep putting into the east, too. Florida growers cannot be too particular in picking, grading and packing.—Florida Growers News.

Genuine hot weather in the north and west last week and sunstrokes and prostrations from the heat were quite numerous. While summer weather has been the fashion in this section for some time sunstrokes and heat prostrations on the coast are unknown. And yet the average man or woman who has never spent a summer on the East Coast of Florida would prefer not to stay here, as they imagine that it must be terrible hot here. About 50 per cent. of the inhabitants of the East Coast came from states north of the Florida line and they stand the summers all right and enjoy the salubrious breezes that blow daily off of old ocean.—Stuart Times.

Convinced by the present prospects that St. Augustine will grow far north of its present limits, the St. Augustine Gas and Electric Light company will extend its mains along the San Marco avenue extension for a distance of over a half mile.—St. Augustine Evening Record.

Most Important Sense.
Man's sense of smell can be of the greatest assistance to him in seeking the beneficial and avoiding the dangerous. The neglect of this one important sense has necessarily kept mankind backward. It, therefore, rests with the educators of the future to properly train and pay attention to odors, so that everyone may be able to distinguish seven octaves of smell or a great spectrum of odors.

Fowler, who was well known in this vicinity, having spent a number of seasons at Daytona Beach, in company with his wife and other members of the family, occupying last winter the Shaffner cottage, "Bide-a-Wee" on the ocean beach. His death occurred Saturday, May 23.

Mr. Fowler, who was 54 years of age, having been born in 1860, had endeared himself to the people of Daytona Beach and had many friends in the peninsula towns and this city who will leave with regret of his death. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Raymond, Maxwell and Walter, Max Fowler being especially well known here, having come south several winters with his parents.

ENJOYING LONG AUTOMOBILE TOUR

Guests at the Daytona Beach hotel were interested Tuesday in the noon arrival of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Leeds of Des Moines, Ia., who are enjoying an automobile tour from Iowa to Palm Beach. Mr. Leeds is a piano dealer in the capital city of the Hawkeye state, but while on this journey he is serving as a special correspondent of the Des Moines Daily News, and is no doubt sending home some interesting notes concerning his first impressions of Florida. The route from Iowa was made via Paducah, Ky., Chattanooga, Atlanta and Jacksonville.

ALLANDALE.

The dredge cut its way out to the Fozzard creek and has turned and cut back to north of Commonwealth avenue. A slight accident to the machinery will cause a delay of a few days. Ridgewood avenue is now closed from Fleming avenue to Kirby Place while the shelling is going on. The work is done from Fleming avenue south to the point where Orange boulevard comes in to Ridgewood avenue. Orange boulevard will be 100 feet wide and connect with Orange avenue to Port Orange.

A letter has been received from Mrs. J. W. Rusk, who is at her summer home at Haines Falls, N. Y., and she informs us that although it is very pleasant now in the mountains her heart is in Allandale, and she thinks that at some time in the past that she must have been an inhabitant of Allandale, either as an alligator or a mocking bird, or, perhaps, a rattlesnake, for her whole heart is here, leaving nothing but head at Haines Falls.

The road scraper and roller were at work on the riverside on Saturday, leveling off the rough places. A heavy rain is much needed now to pack down the shelling.

C. Christancy is at Tate Springs, Tenn., enjoying a much-needed rest and writes that he is feeling much better than he did when he left here a week ago.

The wheelman was knocked down but not seriously hurt and went limping away with his bicycle, after the car had stopped and its occupants had talked with him.

A. Angstack of 32 First avenue, left last Friday for Redding, Pa., expecting to rejoin his son, E. Angstack, in this city some time in July. Mr. Angstack was so unfortunate as to lose just prior to his departure, a pocketbook containing money he had drawn from the bank to defray his traveling expenses. He hoped for the return of the pocketbook from the fact that it contained a check made payable to him, but up to the time of his departure he had heard nothing of it.

It is claimed that mosquitoes breed in stagnant water, such as might be found in rain barrels, uncovered tanks, etc., and as the pesky insects seem to be numerous in some parts of the city it might be well for all people to make a personal inspection of the premises to see that all standing water is covered with kerosene and the breeding places eliminated.

Since the daily band concerts during the winter tourist seasons have proven such a success as a drawing attraction in Daytona a large number of cities and towns throughout the state have taken up the movement to have daily band concerts to entertain the winter visitors, and the coming of the next winter season will find paid musical organizations dispensing sweet strains in a number of Florida cities and towns. New Smyrna could easily get into this by having a band organized among the home talent. It's worth the effort.

It looks like we no more that get through with one election than we are plunged into another one these halcyon days of the good old summer time, and I reckon the people will be glad of a rest from the seventh day of July to the third day of November, the interim between the city election and the time when we are called on to mark our ballots in the general voting. From the way things are opening up it looks like a merry time from now until the ballots are cast for city officers.

I understand there is to be a fire district ordinance included in the new set of ordinances now being compiled by the city council, and that the ordinance will contain regulations as to what kind of buildings shall be constructed within this district, which will cover the congested part of the town. This is a regulation long needed in New Smyrna, as the recent fire in St. Augustine shows. All buildings in the business district should be made as nearly fire proof as possible, and the burning of trash in the rear of down town buildings should also be stopped. The sooner these fire dangers are eliminated the better it will be for the city.

W. A. Whitham returned last evening from his trip to British Columbia.

OUR DIMINISHING FISH SUPPLY

Amid all the varying views that have been expressed in the discussion of the fish question, which has been going on in the columns of The Star or the past several weeks, the fact that the supply of edible fish is rapidly decreasing stands out prominently.

The reason assigned for this decrease by most of our contributors is "illegal fishing." This may be, and probably is, largely responsible for the trouble complained of, and it should be stopped by all means, but may not natural causes have something to do with the diminishing supply? It is a long way through narrow, crooked channels from Mosquito Inlet to Indian river, and farther yet from Gilberts bar to this end of the river. Indian river inlet has been closing up for a long time.

With only these two inlets, both for away and with narrow, crooked waterways between here and there, would not the fish supply be depleted even with the strictest possible observance of the fish laws?

Fishing is one of our largest industries. It should be our largest, but we can not expect to go on forever always taking and doing nothing to assist nature in keeping up the supply.

There are three things that seem to us as fundamental in this regard.

First. The enactment of protective laws based on exact knowledge of the subject and not on theories, and, of course, then strict enforcement.

Second. The establishment of one or more fish-hatching stations.

Third. The opening of more inlets between river and ocean, and the last is by no means the least important, as it would also restore the oyster business.

The first proposition is for the

FLORIDA ROADS.

A total of 2,848 miles of good roads were built in Florida last year at a cost of more than $1,000,000, according to an official report just made public. Half of the roads were surfaced with sand-clay, 857 miles with marl or crushed stone and of the remaining 85 miles were constructed of brick.

A number of Florida counties have voted bond issues for road construction in recent months, and it is estimated that the expenditures this year for highways will amount to $3,000,000 or more.

Nothing has demonstrated more notably the progress that Florida is making than the building of good roads in the state. These roads are paying handsome returns on the money invested in them. They would pay a very satisfactory return if nothing but the increase in the value of lands which they cause was taken into account. Here is a case of a farm owner who attempted to sell his farm for $1,800 and was unable to secure that amount for it. A first-class highway was built through the farm and he then refused an offer of $3,000 for the farm, though there had been no change in the status of the farm except the building of the road.

Not only is Florida building roads, but is constructing very substantial ones, brick being used for the purpose in some counties.

Burmese Measure Like Ours.
The pulgah, a Burmese measure, is the only foreign measure exactly corresponding to our inch.

Florida legislature. The last law rightfully belong to the general government, and to be secured by our delegation in congress, but we would probably stand a better chance of getting action on the matter if we had some kind of an organization—say an "inlet organization," which could work for both projects.

Congress appropriates money frequently for the purpose of establishing a fish hatchery in some little stream, one can hardly find on the map. It should not be a hard matter to get one for Indian river.

The location of an inlet or inlets should be determined by a survey and Congressman L'Engle has already introduced a bill to provide for one, which bill should be pushed to passage. Getting the government to take hold of such work will take some time and considerable effort.

In the meantime the proposition to open an inlet at Sebastian should be carried out, and we would suggest that the people of St. Lucie and Brevard counties work together to this end.

An opening into the ocean anywhere along Brevard's coast line will return every dollar of its cost every year in fish alone, besides taking care of the surplus of water from the big drainage operations, and by giving us a constant new supply of sea water will make for better health conditions.—Cocoa Star.

THE REAL SUCCESS of business is not gained by the know it all style of person who is ever ready for an argument. It's done by the quiet fellow who lets the nation settle its affairs in other ways than by loitering around a corner and settling important questions.

It's he that quietly opens a Checking account and sees that it grows, minds his own business and leaves to the corner orators a clear field. Which do you care to be?

Clean Sweep-Out Sale

15 Days Only

Beginning Monday Morning, June 15, at 7:30 o'clock.

Remember this is not an ordinary Bargain Sale. We are not going to move. It is not a dissolution. It is not a fake of any sort. It is just entirely a case of thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of too many goods. It is just an old-fashioned, honest, straight-out selling of seasonable goods at prices far below their actual value. Something must be done and done quickly. Look where you will, read what you please, your eyes, your mind and your feet should turn toward this store, for so apparent will be the great money saving benefits of this extraordinary sale, even if it will pay you to investigate our statements. See the mighty convincing prices. They tell the story of how one man's loss is your gain. The goods are here, the prices are here and if the saving of dollars means anything to you, you will be here when the doors open Monday, June 15, at 7:30 o'clock in the morning. Money must be had at all hazards. Remember this. No matter what you have seen before, you have never seen anything like this. It will pay you to lay aside everything and travel fifty miles to attend this, the greatest sale that ever occurred in this section. Hop the first train, automobile, ox cart, mule, or take "shanks' mare" and get here on the opening day, or sooner. Read, digest, learn, realize, profit, watch and wait for this mighty sale. Herald the good news everywhere, so all may come and share in the great harvest of merchandise bargains. If you do not care to come to this "Funeral of Profits," you will miss the greatest values in low priced "goodness" you have ever had the opportunity to buy. That is all. SEABREEZE.

SEABREEZE, June 11.—A call meeting was held by the town council on June 4th at 5 o'clock p. m., all members of the board being present. A number of bills were ordered paid. Several complaints in regard to weeds were referred to the mayor for action. The clerk was instructed to secure copies of the laws enacted by the state legislature of 1909 and 1911. The treasurer's report was read. Collector's final report was read and ordered filed. Bids for grubbing and grading and shelling Ocean avenue from Earl street to Ora were opened and read and the contract awarded C. L. Harvey, subject to the people withdrawing present petition and petitioning that the street be grubbed and graded only.

The hour of regular meetings was changed from 7 o'clock p. m. to 5 o'clock p. m. to be in effect until November 1.

The marshal was instructed to take before the mayor all persons who, after second notice had been given, refused to comply with the ordinance requiring that all water tanks be covered. A motion was passed to the effect that corporations desiring the use of the town scraper be charged $250 per day for the privilege of using same. Meeting adjourned.

Mrs. J. Ralph Wilcox was hostess last Thursday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Leisure Hour club at her home on North Halifax avenue. Some of the recent developments of the war in Mexico were interestingly discussed, also some of those taking active part in same. By unanimous vote it was decided to take up a course of reading, prepared by Richard G. Moulton, professor of literature in English in the University of Chicago, on some of the books of the old testament, the next regular meeting, June 18, to be devoted to the book of Job. The meeting was informally pleasant as usual. A refreshing fruit punch was served at the social hour. Mrs. A. T. Bigelow, season leader, presided. Mrs. Barnes was in charge of the program.

C. F. Burgman has a force of men cleaning up Dr. Esch's lots on Palmetto avenue.

Cornelius O'Neill and family of DeLand, through C. F. Burgman, have secured and are occupying the Providence cottage on Grandview avenue for the summer. Mr. O'Neill is engaged in mason work on the Nautilus casino under Contractor Petersohn, who has been awarded all the cement work on the casino and hotel.

Mrs. S. H. Morrison, who has been here for a couple of weeks putting her home in first-class condition, left Monday on her return to Lake Helen, but will return later and expects to spend most of the summer in Seabreeze. Mrs. Morrison has leased for the season the first floor of her residence on Oakridge to a party from Lake Helen who will spend three months on the coast, arriving about July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Baggett and baby who spent the week with Mrs. Baggett's parents on Ocean boulevard, returned home to Daytona Monday morning.

President E. L. Potter is having an addition and alterations made at his winter home on Ocean boulevard. No news has yet been received from him in regard to the rebuilding of the Clarendon garage and help quarters, which were destroyed by fire about a month ago.

Miss Lena Tomlinson joined her two sisters, Misses Claire and Jessie, at their home on North Peninsula drive last week, and the three sisters are enjoying their summer vacation together with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tomlinson.

Mrs. Ray Selden, who herself is one of the girls, chaperoned the following party of young ladies, Misses Burdick, Swartz and the three Misses Tomlinson on a beach picnic and supper at the Blodgett cottage Monday afternoon.

C. P. Lund, city collector and poultry raiser, now that his two busy crops are laid by, is devoting a few sections of his leisure time to the cultivation of a choice variety of geraniums, some of which are just now in bloom. In the early spring Mr. Lund had a large bed specially prepared by laying sidewalks and flooring in cement and filling with marl and earth mold. Under such favorable condition and with careful attention they will receive the plants are sure to be in demand by the winter buyers.

Mrs. Ruby, Mrs. Godsmark and Mrs. Buckner, all of whom have been on the sick list, are much improved, and up around the house again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Weldon entertained a party of 12 or 15 friends at their home on North Halifax avenue Friday evening at a pleasant social gathering.

Miss Halliday's pretty new bungalow on Earl street has progressed to the inside finishing stage, and will shortly be ready for her occupancy.

Just across from the Halliday home Mr. Upson is having two lots graded on which he expects to build later.

Dr. F. V. Kimbrough left Tuesday for Paducah, Ky., his home town for a month's visit, leaving his family here to spend the summer. Dr. Kimbrough came down last winter for his health, and as he has not been feeling well recently he decided to try the benefits of a change.

Mrs. Bockmon, writing back to her husband from Kentucky, speaks of the heat and drouth as something almost unbearable, and in this connection remarked: "I see where you were wise to stop just where you are in Seabreeze this summer. The drouth is something fearful, so much so that it is predicted that the tobacco crop will be cut short."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wells, who have gone north for the summer, set out a number of choice plants in their yard at their winter home on North Peninsula drive last winter, which flourished well under their fostering care, their beauty giving much pleasure to the passers by. In the list they had two fine rose bushes which they specially valued. In their absence Mrs. S. Z. Holland, their next door neighbor, kindly attended to watering the garden. Last week in making her daily round, Mrs. Holland discovered that one of the rose bushes had been dug up and carried off. There is something unusually wrong with a flower thief, an this contemptible form of pilfering is quite common in the winter season but rather unlooked for at this time of the year, the more the shame that it should have occurred in this instance.

The neighbors on North Peninsula drive were greatly alarmed Monday morning about 3 o'clock on being awakened by a bright blaze in the yard of Marshal Lowe, caused by the burning of a big pile of lumber in the south end of the lot left over after rebuilding last fall. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Poor awakened about the same time and soon had Messrs Davis and Poor out pumping water and helping to remove such part of the lumber pile as had not ignited. Mr. Lowe's water tank was dry, but fortunately the tanks at the home of the adjoining neighbors were full of water. Mr. Lowe and his two boys with the help of Mr. Poor, Professor Davis, his brother and father by the free use of water and sand succeeded in extinguishing the fire without further damage than the loss of a pile of old lumber, but had the wind set from the north several cottages would have been burned before the fire could have been checked. The fire originated from a trash pile, which was supposed to have been extinguished.

At the Neptune.—S. Patterson and wife, Wyandott, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. William Fields, DeLand; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sellers and Miss Jennie Eegarton, Orlando; Mr. and Mrs. Aldis and family, DeLand; A. E. Alongski, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fields will occupy the Wilmington handsome new home on the beach, having taken possession Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Wilmington and little son left Sunday for Chicago, Ill., and other points. Mrs. Wilmington and son will visit her mother and expect to be gone all summer.

Mrs. Wilmington's sister, Mrs. Dickhut, the popular local correspondent of the Halifax Journal, left Monday morning for Cincinnati, Ohio, to visit her mother and will later take a position as pianist at the Kings Royal hotel on Owens Sound, Canada, for the summer season.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitsett returned last week to Eustis after a seasonable stay at their cottage on the beach. They expect to return to the coast later.

Mrs. A. W. Powers moved from the Princess Islena, where she has been busy closing the hotel for several weeks, to her home on Glenview boulevard. She and Mrs. Burgman leave about July 1st for Montague to spend the season. Carl Burgman expects to go to the mountains with them.

Hadwin Courtney went up to Jacksonville Monday morning on important business.

A party of turtle egg hunters committed a ruthless deed on the beach one evening last week near the Clarendon hotel. An enormous turtle was captured and the young men are said to have had all the fun possible riding on the turtle's back, etc. Finally tiring of the sport they turned the turtle on its back and so left it to perish miserably, which, according to report, is what happened.

E. J. Ranslow Laid to Rest.—A card received from Mrs. Ranslow by friends here contains the following account of the funeral and burial of Rev. E. J. Ranslow, pastor of the Seabreeze Tourist church, at his home town, Swanton, Va.: "The funeral was held here at the Congregational church at 2.30 Wednesday, June 3rd. Rev. John Thomas officiated, assisted by Rev. Chas. Clark, a life-time friend and Rev. Dr. Peterson of East Berkshire. The Thirteenth and Jenett post here formed a guard of honor. The I. O. O. F. furnished ushers and attended in a body. The people here have been doing everything possible since our arrival, so that the kindness shown us at Seabreeze is being continued as fully as you could wish."

Chamber of Commerce Meeting.—The Seabreeze-Daytona Beach chambers of commerce met in regular session Wednesday evening of last week at the school house, 15 members and several visitors being present. In the absence of First Vice-President C. A. Burgman, U. S. Shelly, second vice-president, presided. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. No report from committees. By permission of the chair Secretary Deacon of the Daytona board of trade, read a communication from the state chambers of commerce in which the local trade body was invited to join the state organization. Also a letter was read from M. E. Hicks, assistant state health officer at St. Petersburg in which a report of the condition of the dairies of Daytona, and the analysis of the milk were given, names being withheld. Also an article from the Times-Union on rules and regulations which should govern the dairy business.

Mr. Deacon was followed by President Stevens of the Daytona board of trade body. The speaker made a very plain talk about the slackness with which health rules were observed in supplying the consumers by the dairies, bakeries, meat markets, etc., of Daytona. "Your source of supply is the same as ours; your bread, meat, milk, fruit and vegetables are brought across the Halifax," the speaker remarked. He went on to say that the Daytona board of trade had at last aroused the public to the necessity of a health officer, whose sole business it would be to look after these matters, and he had met with the Seabreeze-Daytona Beach business body to ask that they endorse and sustain the action of the Daytona board of trade in securing the services of a health officer who will give his time to the three communities, and recommend to their respective councils that they assist in paying for such services.

At the conclusion of his talk the question was put by T. J. Gushie of Daytona Beach: "If, as you say, all our supplies come from Daytona why should we help defray the expense? It would seem that it is up to Daytona to look after her producers." After some discussion the following motion, offered by R. T. Butler of Seabreeze was carried: "That this body recommend that the respective councils of Seabreeze and Daytona Beach take favorable action in co-operating with the council of Daytona in procuring a health officer, leaving the term to be decided by the councils. It was further moved that the communication be delivered to the councils by the secretary."

A long discussion was held over the trash baskets, the final action being to appoint a committee of three to purchase a dozen baskets, and an appropriation of $20 from the board.

Mr. Parker shot a young screech owl which was nesting in a tree near the cottage he is occupying on Mrs. Jella Stewart's grounds Sunday night. Possibly he had been disturbed of his rest other nights by its plaintive wails, but it seemed a cruel act to a couple of young boys, who had kept the bird a few days until it grew stronger and had then restored it to liberty.

May Recover Car.—

J. E. D. Graves left Monday morning for Bainbridge, Ga., to identify and claim, if proven, a Jackson automobile which is supposed to be the one stolen several months ago from H. F. Stewart, a clew to which was given Mrs. Stewart by a clipping from an Atlanta, Ga. paper, sent her by a friend. The story was an account of the arrest of a certain C. W. Dean, alias C. W. Hall, who was held on several charges. As Dean was the name given by the young man who acted as chauffeur for Mr. Stewart, and who was missing on the morning of the disappearance of the car, along with a fine bull pup owned by Mr. Stewart. Mrs. Stewart wrote to the chief of police in Atlanta, giving him the particulars of the theft. It was in answer to this letter of information that she received a communication from the police at Atlanta saying that they believed the car had been found and to come or send someone to identify it. Mrs. Stewart is expecting hourly to hear from Mr. Graves.

No Extra Charge.

Lady of the House—"Half the things you wash are torn to pieces." Washerwoman—"Yes, mum; but when a thing is torn in two or more pieces, mum, I only charge for them as one piece, mum."—New York Mail.

Stevenson on Life.

We are not meant to be good in this world, but to try to be, and fail, and keep on trying; and when we get a cake, to say, "Thank God!" and when we get a buffet, to say, "Just so: well hit!"—Stevenson.

AUTOMOBILE DRIVER
SLEPT AT WHEEL

AWOKE WHEN CAR STRUCK
COWS AND BARELY SAVED
THE MACHINE FROM CRASHING
AGAINST A TREE.

(From The Daytona Gazette-News)
A well-known dental supply man of Jacksonville, who covers the East Coast territory in a Ford car, met with a peculiar accident one day last week while on his way to Daytona from points further south.
The Ford is admitted to be capable of going about anywhere it is possible for an automobile to be driven and Mr. Supply Man was in the habit of driving over rough roads and even where there were no roads at all, but there is one thing that even a Ford will not do, and that is run automatically with the driver asleep at the wheel, as Mr. Supply Man found to his sorrow.
Speeding along south of this city he closed one eye, then the other, and was quickly oblivious to everything but the soothing motion of the swiftly moving car. How long he slept his history saith not, but he was rudely awakened by a mighty jolt to find his machine bearing down upon a monarch of the woods along the roadside. Instinctively he applied the emergency brake and brought the car to a standstill perilously close to the obstruction, and then he realized that the jar which had awakened him was caused by his contact with a couple of cows, one of which was killed by the impact.
Little or no damage resulted to the Ford, and the involuntary "cow punisher" was soon continuing his journey to this city, which he reached without further accident.

JUDGE SEARS BUYS ORANGE GROVE AT HOLLY HILL

(From The Daytona Gazette-News)
C. F. Wetherell of Holly Hill reports the sale of the Benedict grove in the hammock west of that town to Judge Nathaniel C. Sears of Chicago, who owns a winter home at Daytona Beach.
Judge Sears made the purchase while here recently and is expected to return again shortly and arrange for the planting of more grapefruit trees. The property comprises 20 acres, 12 of which are planted to orange and grapefruit and 5 acres to pecans.

ENCOURAGING RETURNS
RECEIVED FOR TOMATOES

(From The Daytona Gazette-News)
The first shipment of tomatoes from the Munroe & Stevens farm brought returns of $1.25 per crate at this place, which is very encouraging to the growers. There is a period of a month or more between the South Florida shipments and those from Georgia, which can be filed in very profitably from this section under ordinary conditions.

TOUGH ON EAST COAST SHIPPERS OF PRODUCE

Washington, D. C., June 8.—By decision today of the supreme court the Florida East Coast railway will be permitted for the present to charge a rate on Florida fruit and vegetables based on the large expenditure of extending the road overseas to Key West.

The decision was based on representations that the Interstate Commerce commission's order against such rates was made without evidence to warrant it. The way was left open for the commission to begin new proceedings in the case.

MALARIA

Familiarity breeds indifference. Even the constant presence of danger loses its terrors for us when we can't escape it or when we become convinced that the process required to rid ourselves of it is more complicated than the danger itself.

This has wide application in Florida to a considerable list of diseases that are actually preventable, or at least possible of restriction far beyond their present prevalence. Malaria is one of these. The disease is usually considered a necessary accompaniment of new and undeveloped countries, and the popular fancy, even in these modern and enlightened times, accepts the fable that it comes from the mists and miasmas arising from wet places.

The only basis for truth in such imaginings is that such conditions favor the breeding of the anopheles mosquito, by which the germs are carried from the malaria-infected individual to other individuals who up to that time are free from the infection. Even in such surroundings the disease would be impossible unless it were brought from other localities by persons who were actually suffering from it.

This suggests the idea that it is possible that any given section or territory may be freed from this infection, and that it is possible has been proven over large areas in different parts of the world. Indeed, the Southern Medical association, through a commission of able physicians, is now working out the details of a comprehensive campaign by which the southern states are to be emancipated from malaria. It is indeed possible, but the most important, because most difficult, element in this campaign will be the co-operation of the people, of the victims themselves, who are the actual sufferers.

Every person who has this disease is the center of infection and danger to those about him, within a large radius. The germs of malaria in the blood of the patient are absorbed by the mosquito in its bite, and passing through certain stages of development in the mosquito, these germs are transmitted to new victims by the same mosquito, and the process is repeated indefinitely and with increasing vigor from the beginning of the warm season to its close.

During the winter and when the temperatures generally fall below 60 degrees Fahrenheit, the anopheles mosquito cannot carry the infection, but the germs of the disease are perpetuated in a more or less dormant condition in the blood of the human host, or patient.

There is thus a cycle of development by which the mosquito infects man and man infects the mosquito, and if at any stage this circle of growth is broken the spread of the disease is stopped in this particular direction.

Theoretically there are two ways of breaking in upon this cycle: First, by the destruction of the mosquito, the sole agent of carrying the disease, or its germs, from one human host to another. While it is possible to prevent the breeding of the mosquito locally, destroying the breeding places by filling up or draining wet spots or by the use of kerosene on the surfaces of stagnant waters; yet it is evident that the destruction of the entire mosquito crop by any known means is a practical impossibility.

The second measure of prevention is by the protection of the human being from the bite of the mosquito, whether it be infected or not. The anopheles is dormant or idle during daylight hours. It gets busy in the early evening and holds high carnival throughout the night. It is during these hours that Floridians in particular should be watchful against this pest.

It used to be considered that the bite of the mosquito was nothing more than annoying. Medical science has shown that it is dangerous, that is, the attack of certain of the many varieties of these insects, not of all, although it may some time be discovered that each variety has a menace all its own. And so it is best and safest to take no chances with any of them.

No mosquito can penetrate a substantial wire screen properly put up. Therefore, surround your porches with screens. See that they are put and kept in place and in good order. Screen the doors and windows of your home, of your living rooms, dining rooms, kitchens and bathrooms. Screen the windows of the bedrooms and over the beds have nets and tuck them in carefully before you retire.

The screen is as necessary a part of the Florida home as its roof. This statement may be questioned, but stop and think about it before you deny it. A roofless house would be no more a menace to health during the larger part of the year in Florida than a house without screens.

These facts regarding malaria are not fresh revelations to intelligent Floridians or to those who have resided here, but even Floridians become careless and indifferent and need reminders of the dangers that threaten them. And malaria is one of these dangers, but one that may be removed and avoided.—State Board of Health.

News from Fair Florida Briefly Told

Society circuses have been a summer attraction at Jacksonville and St. Petersburg.

Melbourne defeated Ft. Pierce last week 5 to 3.

The council at Miami has provided $30,000 for fire department additions and improvements, and a city hospital.

The effort to honor the Indian chief, Osceola, with a monument, is, we think, decidedly silly. What good will a monument do him or his people? Better to make some reparation for the wrong done him and them by doing something for them that would be decidedly beneficial. We do not pretend to know what that should be but those who know them and their circumstances ought to know something that would be of practical utility to them.—Estero Eagle.

Chas. W. Post, the man who coined "There's a reason," is dead. He started with $1,000 and invested 25 per cent. of his net earnings in advertising and became a multi-millionaire in 10 years. The more money he made the more he advertised. On the 25 per cent. principle his advertising appropriation for 1914 was $1,000,000. "There's a reason."—New York Packer.

Ft. McCoy defeated Reddick 9 to 6.

The other day the authorities at St. Petersburg found the body of a man in the reservoir. A little later they found a bunch of bullet-holes in the body. Then they found that his throat had been cut across—and then they began to believe the poor man was dead. Some discernment there.—Palm Beach Post.

The entire business district of Capitola, a splendid little town in the eastern section of the country, at the junction of the Seaboard and Florida Central railroad, was destroyed by fire at noon Monday.—Tallahassee True Democrat.

Daytona is to have a big Fourth of July celebration, and a mardi gras later in the month.

After St. Augustine had a destructive fire no time was lost in purchasing an automobile fire apparatus. Will Orlando require such an argument to force the purchase of an auto truck?—Orlando Sentinel.

The St. Augustine council ordered the motor truck long before the big fire. But when you want to see a regular fire department, visit the "Prettiest Winter Resort in the World."

The latest turn in the Ohio Republican senatorial situation is the avowed candidacy of former Lieut.-Gov. Warren G. Harding of Marion. Opponents of former Senator J. B. Foraker are back of the Harding movement, but it is stated that the contest between Foraker and Harding is to be a friendly one. This, of course, is not to be taken seriously, for who ever knew of Mr. Foraker participating in a contest that was not featured with all the fighting fixtures.—Bowling Green (O.) Democrat.

Mr. Harding spends his winters on Magnolia avenue, Dayton.

When the street railway in Miami is ready for operation some time in the future it is probable that the storage battery type of cars in use in Daytona will be placed in commission.

The Melbourne Times is doing its level best to get some improvements made in the bad stretch of road between Eau Gallie and Melbourne—that same stretch of road which the Metropolis has frequently reported complaints of. "From Atlanta to Miami," says a writer in the Melbourne paper, "there is not a piece of road one tenth as rotten and mean." The Metropolis is glad to see the papers of Brevard county take the matter in hand.—Miami Metropolis.

Tampa is the biggest white city in the state of Florida. Jacksonville has to count the negroes to beat us.—Tampa Times.

Billy Sunday says that the greatest work in the world is saving souls. Billy ought to try his hand in Apalachicola.—Apalachicola Times. Billy had better look out for No. 1.

Arcadia defeated Bowling Green 14 to 0.

The Miami board of trade has trouble getting a quorum these days. And in Miami, too, where they claim to have no dull season.

Orlando has made a start on a white way. That is the only proper mode of lighting the business section of any city.

The St. Petersburg Independent believes that an anti-tipping bill cannot be accomplished for Florida. Hope the hotel proprietors in the Sunshine City don't feel the same way.—Miami Metropolis.

Ft. Lauderdale won from Palm Beach 6 to 5.

A new boat line is soon to enter Tampa from New Orleans.

A Pinellas county paper in order to excuse the people for lack of interest in the primary election says that the people there are "too much interested in their own affairs."—Miami Metropolis.

Miami notes the increase of crime in St. Petersburg and admits the same thing at home. St. Petersburg, recently went wet, and Miami recently went dry, and an increase of crime has followed at both places. Now figure it out to suit yourself.—St. Petersburg Daily Times.

Joe Sears, who was nominated for congress from the Fourth district last Tuesday, is one of the most lovable men in the state. He resides at Kissimmee and is well known to many Gainesville people.—Gainesville Daily Sun.

Despite the adverse criticism leveled at the new Bryan primary law we believe it will stick.—Sanford Herald.

The plurality primary is again in vogue, second choice voting being not much in evidence in the "late" primary. At least two nominees got their nomination by only a plurality vote in Alachua county.—Gainesville Daily Sun.

California's big orange crop kept the prices of Floridas down during April and May. The quality was fine, too. California is going to keep butting into the east, too. Florida growers cannot be too particular in picking, grading and packing.—Florida Growers News.

Genuine hot weather in the north and west last week and sunstrokes and prostrations from the heat were quite numerous. While summer weather has been the fashion in this section for some time sunstrokes and heat prostrations on the coast are unknown. And yet the average man or woman who has never spent a summer on the East Coast of Florida would prefer not to stay here, as they imagine that it must be terrible hot here. About 90 per cent. of the inhabitants of the East Coast came from states north of the Florida line and they stand the summers all right and enjoy the salubrious breezes that blow daily off of old ocean.—Stuart Times.

Convinced by the present prospects that St. Augustine will grow far north of its present limits, the St. Augustine Gas and Electric Light company will extend its mains along the San Marco avenue extension for a distance of over a half mile.—St. Augustine Evening Record.

Most Important Sense.
Man's sense of smell can be of the greatest assistance to him in seeking the beneficial and avoiding the dangerous. The neglect of this one important sense has necessarily kept mankind backward. It, therefore, rests with the educators of the future to properly train and pay attention to odors, so that everyone may be able to distinguish seven octaves of smell or a great spectrum of odors.

Fowler, who was well known in this vicinity, having spent a number of seasons at Daytona Beach, in company with his wife and other members of the family, occupying last winter the Shaffner cottage, "Bide-a-Wee" on the ocean beach. His death occurred Saturday, May 23.

Mr. Fowler, who was 54 years of age, having been born in 1836, had endeared himself to the people of Daytona Beach and had many friends in the peninsula towns and this city who will learn with regret of his death. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Raymond, Maxwell and Walter, Max Fowler being especially well known here, having come south several winters with his parents.

Y., and she informs us that although it is very pleasant now in the mountains her heart is in Allandale, and she thinks that at some time in the past that she must have been an inhabitant of Allandale, either as an alligator or a mocking bird, or, perhaps, a rattlesnake, for her whole heart is here, leaving nothing but head at Haines Falls.

"DEEP WATER," Our Slogan.

It is claimed that mosquitoes breed in stagnant water, such as might be found in rain barrels, uncovered tanks, etc., and as the pesky insects seem to be numerous in some parts of the city it might be well for all people to make a personal inspection of the premises to see that all standing water is covered with kerosene and the breeding places eliminated.

Since the daily band concerts during the winter tourist seasons have proven such a success as a drawing attraction in Daytona a large number of cities and towns throughout the state have taken up the movement to have daily band concerts to entertain the winter visitors, and the coming of the next winter season will find paid musical organizations dispensing sweet strains in a number of Florida cities and towns. New Smyrna could easily get into this by having a band organized among the home talent. It's worth the effort.

It looks like we no more than get through with one election than we are plunged into another one these halcyon days of the good old summer time, and I reckon the people will be glad of a rest from the seventh day of July to the third day of November, the interim between the city election and the time when we are called on to mark our ballots in the general voting. From the way things are opening up it looks like a merry time from now until the ballots are cast for city officers.

I understand there is to be a fire district ordinance included in the new set of ordinances now being compiled by the city council, and that the ordinance will contain regulations as to what kind of buildings shall be constructed within this district, which will cover the congested part of the town. This is a regulation long needed in New Smyrna, as the recent fire in St. Augustine shows. All buildings in the business district should be made as nearly fire proof as possible, and the burning of trash in the rear of down town buildings should also be stopped. The sooner these fire dangers are eliminated the better it will be for the city.

W. A. Whitman returned last evening from his trip to British Columbia.

OUR DIMINISHING FISH SUPPLY

Amid all the varying views that have been expressed in the discussion of the fish question, which has been going on in the columns of The Star or the past several weeks, the fact that the supply of edible fish is rapidly decreasing stands out prominently.

The reason assigned for this decrease by most of our contributors is "illegal fishing." This may be, and probably is, largely responsible for the trouble complained of, and it should be stopped by all means, but may not natural causes have something to do with the diminishing supply? It is a long way through narrow, crooked channels from Mosquito inlet to Indian river, and farther yet from Gilberts bar to this part of the river. Indian river inlet has been closing up for a long time.

With only these two inlets, both far away and with narrow, crooked waterways between here and there, would not the fish supply be depleted even with the strictest possible observance of the fish laws?

Fishing is one of our largest industries. It should be our largest, but we can not expect to go on forever always taking and doing nothing to assist nature in keeping up the supply.

There are three things that seem to us as fundamental in this regard: First, The enactment of protective laws based on exact knowledge of the subject and not on theories, and, of course, then strict enforcement.

Second, The establishment of one or more fish-hatching stations.

Third, The opening of more inlets between river and ocean, and the last is by no means the least important, as it would also restore the oyster business.

The first proposition is for the

FLORIDA ROADS.

A total of 2,848 miles of good roads were built in Florida last year at a cost of more than $1,000,000, according to an official report just made public. Half of the roads were surfaced with sand-clay, 857 miles with macadam or crushed stone and of the remaining 85 miles were constructed of brick.

A number of Florida counties have voted bond issues for road construction in recent months, and it is estimated that the expenditures this year for highways will amount to $3,000,000 or more.

Nothing has demonstrated more notably the progress that Florida is making than the building of good roads in the state. These roads are paying handsome returns on the money invested in them. They would pay a very satisfactory return if nothing but the increase in the value of lands which they cause was taken into account. Here is a case of a farm owner who attempted to sell his farm for $1,500 and was unable to secure that amount for it. A first-class highway was built through the farm and he then refused an offer of $3,000 for the farm, though there had been no change in the status of the farm except the building of the road.

Not only is Florida building roads, but is constructing very substantial ones, brick being used for the purpose, in some counties.

Burmese Measure Like Ours.
The pulgat, a Burmese measure, is the only foreign measure exactly corresponding to our inch.

Florida legislature. The last law rightfully belong to the general government, and to be secured by our delegation in congress, but we would probably stand a better chance of getting action on the matter if we had some kind of an organization—say an "inlet organization," which could work for both projects.

Congress appropriates money frequently for the purpose of establishing a fish hatchery in some little stream, one can hardly find on the map. It should not be a hard matter to get one for Indian river.

The location of an inlet or inlets should be determined by a survey and Congressman L'Engle has already introduced a bill to provide for one, which bill should be pushed to passage. Getting the government to take hold of such work will take some time and considerable effort.

In the meantime the proposition to open an inlet at Sebastian should be carried out, and we would suggest that the people of St. Lucie and Brevard counties work together to this end.

An opening into the ocean anywhere along Brevard's coast line will return every dollar of its cost every year in fish alone, besides taking care of the overplus of water from the big drainage operations, and by giving us a constant new supply of sea water will make for better health conditions.—Cocoa Star.

THE REAL SUCCESS of business is not gained by the know it all style of person who is ever ready for an argument. It's done by the quiet fellow who lets the nation settle its affairs in other ways than by loitering around a corner and settling important questions.

It's he that quietly opens a Checking account and sees that it grows, minds his own business and leaves to the corner orators a clear field. Which do you care to be?

SEABREEZE.

SEABREEZE, June 11.—A call meeting was held by the town council on June 4th at 5 o'clock p. m., all members of the board being present. A number of bills were ordered paid. Several complaints in regard to weeds were referred to the mayor for action. The clerk was instructed to secure copies of the laws enacted by the state legislature of 1909 and 1911. The treasurer's report was read. Collector's final report was read and ordered filed. Bids for grubbing and grading and shelling Ocean avenue from Earl street to Ora were opened and read and the contract awarded C. L. Harvey, subject to the people withdrawing present petition and petitioning that the street be grubbed and graded only.

The hour of regular meetings was changed from 7 o'clock p. m. to 5 o'clock p. m. to be in effect until November 1.

The marshal was instructed to take before the mayor all persons who, after second notice had been given, refused to comply with the ordinance requiring that all water tanks be covered. A motion was passed to the effect that corporations desiring the use of the town scraper be charged $2.50 per day for the privilege of using same. Meeting adjourned.

Mrs. J. Ralph Wilcox was hostess last Thursday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Leisure Hour club at her home on North Halifax avenue. Some of the recent developments of the war in Mexico were interestingly discussed, also some of those taking active part in same. By unanimous vote it was decided to take up a course of reading, prepared by Richard G. Moulton, professor of literature in English in the University of Chicago, on some of the books of the old testament, the next regular meeting, June 18, to be devoted to the book of Job. The meeting was informally pleasant as usual. A refreshing fruit punch was served at the social hour. Mrs. A. T. Bigelow, season leader, presided. Mrs. Barnes was in charge of the program.

C. F. Burgman has a force of men cleaning up Dr. Esch's lots on Palm-metto avenue.

Cornelius O'Neill and family of DeLand, through C. F. Burgman, have secured and are occupying the Providence cottage on Grandview avenue for the summer. Mr. O'Neill is engaged in mason work on the Nautilus casino under Contractor Petersohn, who has been awarded all the cement work on the casino and hotel.

Mrs. S. H. Morrison, who has been here for a couple of weeks putting her home in first-class condition, left Monday on her return to Lake Helen, but will return later and expects to spend most of the summer in Seabreeze. Mrs. Morrison has leased for the season the first floor of her residence on Oakridge to a party from Lake Helen who will spend three months on the coast, arriving about July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Baggett and baby who spent the week with Mrs. Baggett's parents on Ocean boulevard, returned home to Daytona Monday morning.

President E. L. Potter is having an addition and alterations made at his winter home on Ocean boulevard. No news has yet been received from him in regard to the rebuilding of the Clarendon garage and help quarters, which were destroyed by fire about a month ago.

Miss Lena Tomlinson joined her two sisters, Misses Claire and Jessie, at their home on North Peninsula drive last week, and the three sisters are enjoying their summer vacation together with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tomlinson.

Mrs. Ray Selden, who herself is one of the girls, chaperoned the following party of young ladies, Misses Burdick, Swartz and the three Misses Tomlinson on a beach picnic and supper at the Blodgett cottage Monday afternoon.

C. P. Lund, city collector and poultry raiser, now that his two busy crops are laid by, is devoting a few sections of his leisure time to the cultivation of a choice variety of geraniums, some of which are just now in bloom. In the early spring Mr. Lund had a large bed specially prepared by laying sidewalks and flooring in cement and filling with marl and earth mold. Under such favorable condition and with careful attention they will receive the plants are sure to be in demand by the winter buyers.

Mrs. Ruby, Mrs. Goddard and Mrs. Buckner, all of whom have been on the sick list, are much improved, and up around the house again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Weldon entertained a party of 12 or 15 friends at their home on North Halifax avenue Friday evening at a pleasant social gathering.

Miss Halliday's pretty new bungalow on Earl street has progressed to the inside finishing stage, and will shortly be ready for her occupancy.

Just across from the Halliday home Mr. Upson is having two lots graded on which he expects to build later.

Dr. F. V. Kimbrough left Tuesday for Paducah, Ky., his home town for a month's visit, leaving his family here to spend the summer. Dr. Kimbrough came down last winter for his health, and as he has not been feeling well recently he decided to try the benefits of a change.

Mrs. Bockmon, writing back to her husband from Kentucky, speaks of the heat and drouth as something almost unbearable, and in this connection remarked: "I see where you were wise to stop just where you are in Seabreeze this summer. The drouth is something fearful, so much so that it is predicted that the tobacco crop will be cut short."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wells, who have gone north for the summer, set out a number of choice plants in their yard at their winter home on North Peninsula drive last winter, which flourished well under their fostering care, their beauty giving much pleasure to the passers-by. In the list they had two fine rose bushes which they specially valued. In their absence Mrs. S. Z. Holland, their next door neighbor, kindly attended to watering the garden. Last week in making her daily round, Mrs. Holland discovered that one of the rose bushes had been dug up and carried off. There is something unusually wrong with a flower thief, an this contemptible form of pilfering is quite common in the winter season but rather unlooked for at this time of the year, the more the shame that it should have occurred in this instance.

The neighbors on North Peninsula drive were greatly alarmed Monday morning about 3 o'clock on being awakened by a bright blaze in the yard of Marshal Lowe, caused by the burning of a big pile of lumber in the south end of the lot left over after rebuilding last fall. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Poor awakened about the same time and soon had Messrs Davis and Poor out pumping water and helping to remove such part of the lumber pile as had not ignited. Mr. Lowe's water tank was dry, but fortunately the tanks at the home of the adjoining neighbors were full of water. Mr. Lowe and his two boys with the help of Mr. Poor. Professor Davis, his brother and father by the free use of water and sand succeeded in extinguishing the fire without further damage than the loss of a pile of old lumber, but had the wind set from the north several cottages would have been burned before the fire could have been checked. The fire originated from a trash pile, which was supposed to have been extinguished.

At the Neptune.—S. Patterson and wife, Wyandott, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. William Fields, DeLand; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sellers and Miss Jennie Egerton, Orlando; Mr. and Mrs. Aldis and family, DeLand; A. E. Alongaki, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fields will occupy the Wilmington handsome new home on the beach, having taken possession Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Wilmington and little son left Sunday for Chicago, Ill., and other points. Mrs. Wilmington and son will visit her mother and expect to be gone all summer.

Mrs. Wilmington's sister, Mrs. Dickhut, the popular local correspondent of the Halifax Journal, left Monday morning for Cincinnati, Ohio, to visit her mother and will later take a position as pianist at the Kings Royal hotel on Owens Sound, Canada, for the summer season.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitsett returned last week to Eustis after a seasonable stay at their cottage on the beach. They expect to return to the coast later.

Mrs. A. W. Powers moved from the Princess Islena, where she has been busy closing the hotel for several weeks, to her home on Glenview boulevard. She and Mrs. Burgman leave about July 1st for Montego to spend the season. Carl Burgman expects to go to the mountains with them.

Hadwin Courtney went up to Jacksonville Monday morning on important business.

A party of turtle egg hunters committed a ruthless deed on the beach one evening last week near the Clarendon hotel. An enormous turtle was captured and the young men are said to have had all the fun possible riding on the turtle's back, etc. Finally tiring of the sport they turned the turtle on its back and so left it to perish miserably, which, according to report, is what happened.

E. J. Ranslow Laid to Rest.—

A card received from Mrs. Ranslow by friends here contains the following account of the funeral and burial of Rev. E. J. Ranslow, pastor of the Seabreeze Tourist church, at his home town, Swanton, Va.: "The funeral was held here at the Congregational church at 2.30 Wednesday, June 3rd. Rev. John Thomas officiated, assisted by Rev. Chas. Clark, a lifetime friend and Rev. Dr. Peterson of East Berkshire. The Thirteenth and Jonett post here formed a guard of honor. The I. O. O. F. furnished ushers and attended in a body. The people here have been doing everything possible since our arrival, so that the kindness shown us at Seabreeze is being continued as fully as you could wish."

Chamber of Commerce Meeting.—

The Seabreeze-Daytona Beach chambers of commerce met in regular session Wednesday evening of last week at the school house, 15 members and several visitors being present. In the absence of First Vice-President C. A. Burgman, U. S. Shelly, second vice-president, presided. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. No report from committees. By permission of the chair Secretary Deacon of the Daytona board of trade, read a communication from the state chambers of commerce in which the local trade body was invited to join the state organization. Also a letter was read from M. E. Hicks, assistant state health officer at St. Petersburg in which a report of the condition of the dairies of Daytona, and the analysis of the milk were given, names being withheld. Also an article from the Times-Union on rules and regulations which should govern the dairy business.

Mr. Deacon was followed by President Stevens of the Daytona board of trade body. The speaker made a very plain talk about the slackness with which health rules were observed in supplying the consumers by the dairies, bakeries, meat markets, etc., of Daytona. "Your source of supply is the same as ours; your bread, meat, milk, fruit and vegetables are brought across the Halifax," the speaker remarked. He went on to say that the Daytona board of trade had at last aroused the public to the necessity of a health officer, whose sole business it would be to look after these matters, and he had met with the Seabreeze-Daytona Beach business body to ask that they endorse and sustain the action of the Daytona board of trade in securing the services of a health officer who will give his time to the three communities, and recommend to their respective councils that they assist in paying for such services.

At the conclusion of his talk the question was put by T. J. Gushue of Daytona Beach: "If, as you say, all our supplies come from Daytona why should we help defray the expense? It would seem that it is up to Daytona to look after her producers." After some discussion the following motion, offered by R. T. Butler of Seabreeze was carried: "That this body recommend that the respective councils of Seabreeze and Daytona Beach take favorable action in co-operating with the council of Daytona in procuring a health officer, leaving the term to be decided by the councils. It was further moved that the communication be delivered to the councils by the secretary."

A long discussion was held over the trash baskets, the final action being to appoint a committee of three to purchase a dozen baskets, and an appropriation of $20 from the board.

Miss Florence Knight and her aunt, Mrs. Malloy, left last Wednesday for Washington, D. C., on receipt of the news that Miss Florence's brother, E. A. Knight, had met with an automobile accident, and was in the Emergency hospital in that city. Miss Knight, writing to her brother here, stated that E. A.'s arm was broken, but that he was getting along very well. E. A. Knight, who is in the bakery business here with his brother, was in Washington for a few days enroute to Chicago, where he expected to spend the summer, when he met with the accident while taking an automobile drive. Messrs Knight keep an exceptionally good bakery and are much thought of in a business way in the community.

The largest crowd of the season visited the beach Sunday, in fact the hotel caterers say that there were as many visitors on the beach Sunday as at any time last year during the month of July.

Mr. Parker shot a young screech owl which was nesting in a tree near the cottage he is occupying on Mrs. Julia Stewart's grounds Sunday night. Possibly he had been disturbed of his rest other nights by its plaintive wails, but it seemed a cruel act to a couple of young boys, who had kept the bird a few days until it grew stronger and had then restored it to liberty.

Mrs. Foster left this week for Lovington, Ill., where she will visit for a time and then continue her trip to North Dakota, where she will spend the remainder of the summer with her son, Will Foster.

Council Proceedings.—

Town council met in regular session Monday night, all members of the board present. President Shoemaker in the chair. Three building permits were granted as follows: George Carew, a doll house on his winter home place; Beach and Vining, to erect three small concrete buildings on their property on Harvey avenue; E. L. King, to erect a $45,000 residence on the Bostwick property. The telephone ordinance for the East Florida Telephone company was referred back to the telephone company. It was ordered that Ocean avenue be grubbed, graded and shelled 400 feet south from the Andrews home. It was ordered that Duke street be opened from Atlantic avenue to the ocean. The ordinance requiring mufflers for motor engines passed on third reading. City engineer was instructed to lay out Grandview avenue through the Marshall addition to within one street of Silver Beach avenue. Mayor and clerk were authorized to proceed to make something of a public park of the Hubbell lot across from the Budgen property.

May Recover Car.—

J. E. D. Graves left Monday morning for Bainbridge, Ga., to identify and claim, if proven, a Jackson automobile which is supposed to be the one stolen several months ago from H. F. Stewart, a clew to which was given Mrs. Stewart by a clipping from an Atlanta, Ga., paper, sent her by a friend. The story was an account of the arrest of a certain C. W. Dean, alias C. W. Hall, who was held on several charges. As Dean was the name given by the young man who acted as chauffeur for Mr. Stewart, and who was missing on the morning of the disappearance of the car, along with a fine bull pup owned by Mr. Stewart. Mrs. Stewart wrote to the chief of police in Atlanta, giving him the particulars of the theft. It was in answer to this letter of information that she received a communication from the police at Atlanta saying that they believed the car had been found and to come or send some one to identify it. Mrs. Stewart is expecting hourly to hear from Mr. Graves.

No Extra Charge.

Stevenson on Life.

We are not meant to be good in this world, but to try to be, and fail, and keep on trying; and when we get a cake, to say, "Thank God!" and when we get a buffet, to say, "Just so: well hit!"—Stevenson.

The groom's brother, Philip acted as best man and Alec and David Seabloom, brothers of the bride, were groomsmen. The wedding march was played by Miss Helena Lofberg. Impressive Stationery

ata Usable Price

In the selection of business stationery no well-balanced man would seek the superfine regardless of cost, nor demand the very cheapest regardless of quality. It is too evident there are more important things to consider. These things are: The impression your stationery makes upon those who receive your letters, and the amount it is necessary to expend to make the desired impression.
